

From email: "Went out in Middle Basin north of Big Sky today and saw 5 separate slides, the largest about 500ft across and approximately 2ft deep. All of them were northeast to southeast aspects from about 9200 to 9800ft. The included photos aren't the best but give an idea of the slides, most are from that largest slide." Photo: B. Richards

Advisory Region
Northern Madison

Longitude
-111.38W

Latitude
45.34N

Avalanche Details: Middle Basin Avalanches

